Crime," He Asserts.

Washington, February 12.—That the reconstruction history of Alabama, and the story of the canal scandal, are two of the same thing, was the substance of a scorching attack upon Mr. Rayney, Republican congressman from Alabama, made by Mr. Loving, Democrat, of the same state, in the House of Representatives today.

Mr. Loving declared that the "perpetrators of false state men known, and the story of their doings reveals a chapter in the history of blackmail rings in the annals of crime." He asserted that the canal scandal was a part of a larger scheme, and that the world furnished information to Rainy.

SECTIONAL FLOORING FOR AUDITORIUM

Contract Let by Chairman Murphy, of Builders' Committee, to R. B. Hays.

The new auditorium at Atlanta's Exposition, which is to be completed by April 1, is to be furnished with sectional flooring. The contract for the flooring has been awarded to R. B. Hays, of the Georgia Flooring Company. The flooring is to be made of a material which is both durable and fireproof.

It was suggested by the board of health that the auditorium be furnished with sectional flooring, and the board has now decided to accept the suggestion.

The new auditorium is to be a large and comfortable place, and the sectional flooring will make it a very desirable place for the public.

The sectional flooring is to be made of a material which is both durable and fireproof, and it will be a very desirable feature of the auditorium.
